

Covid 19

We are all familiar with the term Covid 19. It has, in the last few months, affected our lives greatly. Covid 19 is a global challenge. Governments all over the world are working together to defeat this virus...(well maybe not all!) This requires (needs) co-operation and the willingness to make tough decisions for the good of all. We too, have a responsibility to help beat Covid 19 by obeying and adhering to the rules surrounding our movements and activities. This is practising good citizenship. We are putting the collective needs of our community before our own needs. This shows compassion (concern for the suffering of others,) empathy (the ability to sense or imagine how others must be feeling or thinking) and social responsibility. We should all be proud of our sacrifices, no matter how big or small.
